INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date: September 7, 1972

Attached states a press conference was held in New York City on 9/7/72 by David Dellinger and Cora Weiss, co-chairmen of Committee of Liaison with Families of Servicemen Detained in North Vietnam (COLIFAM). Dellinger and Weiss announced they would depart the United States for Hanoi, North Vietnam, on 9/13/72 and will be accompanied by Reverend William Sloane Coffin, Jr., of Yale University and two other individuals whom they did not identify. They stated they will remain in North Vietnam for about a week before returning to the United States with three prisoners of war. They read a prepared statement denouncing President Nixon and the United States' involvement in the war in Southeast Asia. Dellinger and Weiss attempted to evade direct answers to questions asked by the press even though they had invited questions.

Information attached was disseminated by teletype to the President, Vice President, State Department, Central Intelligence Agency, Secret Service and the military. A copy was sent to the Attorney General by messenger. 345,570

Date 9-29-72

You were previously advised of activities of antiwar activists David Dellinger and Cora Weiss, connected with Committee of Liaison with Servicemen detained in North Vietnam (COLIFAM), who traveled to North Vietnam to accept release of three American prisoners of war (POWs).

Attached reports arrival of subjects, POWs and relatives at New York City (NYC) one evening of 9-28-72. Mother of POW Charles exhibited a sign which was antiwar in nature when the POW approached the press. Dellinger, Weiss and others who traveled to North Vietnam addressed press conference and criticized U.S. Government and military tactics in this matter. Weiss said POW Edward Elias cooperated fully with the military and had "deceived" them.

Information in attached sent by teletype to the President, Vice President, State Department, Central Intelligence Agency, Defense Intelligence Agency, Secret Service, [redacted] and the military. Copy to the Attorney General by messenger.
